About Columbia University Head Coach Niki Miller:

Nicole Miller was named the seventh head coach in the history of the Columbia Lions field hockey program in August 2024. In her first season, she led Columbia to its first-ever Ivy League Tournament appearance. Miller previously spent six seasons as the inaugural head coach at Wagner Seahawks field hockey, guiding the program to three straight Northeast Conference Tournament appearances.

As a player, Miller helped lead the UMass Minutewomen to three A-10 championships and multiple NCAA Division I Championship appearances.

Clinic Points of Emphasis:

- First Touch & Ball Control – Receiving under pressure and controlling the ball to create space.
- Transition Play – Reacting quickly when switching from defense to offense. Key concepts of what to look for in order to be successful on the transition
- Attacking in the Circle – Creating scoring opportunities, off-ball movement, and finishing.
- Passing Accuracy & Decision Making – Quick, purposeful passing and recognizing the best option.

SPACE IS LIMITED TO THE FIRST 40 PLAYERS WHO SIGN UP!!
